A Lancaster man was killed in a head-on collision Monday.

Wylie Stewart, 58, was pronounced dead at the scene, according to Lancaster County Coroner Karla Deese.

The accident involving a pickup and a rollback tow truck, occurred about noon June 26 at 2460 Fork Hill Road, Heath Springs.

According to a Lancaster County Sheriff's Office report, Stewart was driving a gold 2000 Chevrolet Silverado 1500 pickup truck, which was in a ditch when first responders arrived.

Brian Mahaffey, 59, was driving the black 2022 Dodge Ram 5500 tow truck from Boss Hoggs Towing in Lancaster. He was transported to MUSC Health — Lancaster Medical Center with non life-threatening injuries.

S.C. Highway Patrol Cpl. David Jones reported that Stewart's pickup was traveling south on Fork Hill Road when it crossed the center line and hit the tow truck head-on. The tow truck had been traveling north on the road, about 5 miles north of Kershaw, when the collision occurred.

The accident is being investigated by the S.C. Highway Patrol and Lancaster County Coroner's Office.
